by January 22, 2024

Ceremony to be held at Gabriola Arts and Heritage Centre (GAHC), 5 pm, Friday January 24th, 2025

- 1. Please tell us about yourself. Where are you now in your art practice? Please let us know where you create, what media you use, and what inspires you? In other words what is your creative story? (250-500 words)
- 2. Tell us how you feel this award will help you embody the concept of alchemy? What challenges are you overcoming so you can embrace your purpose as a change maker and creator? (250-500 words)
- 3. How might this award help you to move forward in your art practice? What is your vision for this award? Why is receiving this award important to you? How will this benefit you and your art practice?
(250-500 words)

We ask that the successful recipient this year be willing to speak about their journey and how the award contributed to transforming their art practice at the following year's ceremony. We will also request this in writing so it can be passed onto Seraphina's family.

Please note when you email your application you can expect a confirmation within a few days. Please contact us if you have not received one.
